Brigade® Series

LATERAL FILES

BUILT TO SOLDIER ON

Brigade lateral files are built for high-activity filing in corporations, educational institutions, hospitals and government offices. Inner frame and heavy-duty ball-bearing suspensions stand up to years of use. The interlock system inhibits more than one drawer from opening at a time. Counterweights are placed in most models to prevent tipping. Includes side-to-side hangrails for letter or legal filing.

FEATURES

- Double-walled base keeps the cabinet frame perfectly aligned for years of reliable service
- All-welded case construction stands up to demanding work environments
- HON One Key core removable locks can be changed or interchanged as security demands change
- Leveling glides compensate for uneven floors
- Available with 2-, 3-, 4- and 5-drawers, 30", 36" and 42" widths
- Heavy-duty steel ball-bearing drawer suspensions operate easily and quietly
